Who is Pastor Curtis W. Goodwin, Sr.?

Listener, Advocate, Giver

Reverend Curtis W. Goodwin, Sr. served as the senior pastor of Watson Grove Missionary Baptist Church from 1973-2011. He loved God whole-heartedly and lived out God’s love through his service to the church and community. During Pastor Goodwin’s time at Watson Grove, he was passionate and dedicated to fostering the development of youth. He mentored young preachers, encouraged children involvement in the church, and supported youth by attending their activities outside of the church. Pastor Goodwin was an advocate and provided a voice with/for the voiceless. He provided opportunities to hear children's voices, he visited and fought for incarcerated individuals, and he believed that underrepresented populations in the community had voices that were important to hear. Pastor Goodwin wanted to see the betterment of his community through collaboration of those that lived there and having local and state government know their needs. As a graduate of American Baptist College, Pastor Goodwin was dedicated to staying connected to that community and the young people the institution developed. Pastor Goodwin was a selfless servant by giving his time, actively listening, and advocating for others.
